There are several trails that will take one to Grenora. Some of them are paved with asphalt. Some of them are relatives or friends that beckon, but all of them are interesting to the eye and the heart.

I took one of those trails. It was the road that went by West Prairie Lutheran Church. That road took me over several ridges and into many a fine valley. One of the valleys harbored the beginnings of Cow Creek. I can imagine how it got its name. Cattle grazed the gentle valley and came to drink at the fresh stream, that is ... fresh during the run off. When you looked over the valley you got the impression that creek had been working over that valley for some time.

I met an interesting poet that lives by the headwaters of Cow Creek. She can write of God's work in about any place she is put. She can pick words right out of the air; a mystery that befuddles me, her eye reveals. I can't figure it out, but it probably has something to do with Cow Creek running through that gentle valley, or it is simply a gift that God has given her.

The eye of faith is something like that. It sees things differently than the unbelieving eye. Two brothers can look at the same thing and see something entirely different. That's why when I came over the ridge at Cow Creek and saw that antlered elk grazing at the edge of the creek I marveled, simply marveled, at the work of God right on the road to Grenora. It's no wonder a poet lives up there. Have you seen it? Or is it just another road?

Recipe Corner:

Sunny Sherbet Slush

1 6 ounce can frozen orange juice

1 6 ounce can frozen lemonade

1 ½ cups unsweetened pineapple juice

½ gallon orange sherbet

Thaw the orange juice and lemonade (Do not dilute). Soften the sherbet and then add all of the juices. Mix well and freeze. Scoop out as much as you would like into a glass and add some ginger ale to make it slushy.

This is actually a punch recipe, but the person I got the recipe from used it as a slush. It's really refreshing in the summer.

A perfect summer day is ...

When the sun is shining,
The breeze is blowing,
The birds are singing,
And the lawn mower is broken.

Father's Day Tribute

It's So Nice to Have a Dad Around the House

DADS are special people
No home should be without
For every family will agree
They're SO NICE TO HAVE ABOUT
They are a happy mixture
Of a "SMALL BOY" and a "MAN"
And they're very necessary
In every FAMILY PLAN –
Sometimes they're most demanding
And stern, and firm and tough
But underneath they're soft as silk
For this is just a BLUFF
But in any kind of trouble
Dad reaches out his hand
And you can always count on him
TO help and understand
And while we do not praise Dad
As often as we should
We love him and admire him,
And while that's understood
It's only fair to emphasize
His importance and his worth –
For if there were no loving Dads
This would be a LOVELESS EARTH

Happy Father's Day!

Walk a little slower

Walk a little slower, Daddy,
Said a little child so small.
I'm following in your footsteps
And I don't want to fall.

Sometimes your steps are very fast,
Sometimes they are hard to see,
So, walk a little slower Daddy,
For you are leading me.

Someday when I am all grown up
You're what I want to be
Then I will have a little child
Who will want to follow me.

And I would want to lead just right,
And know that I was true;
So, walk a little slower Daddy,
For I must follow you.

---

What is a Dad?

A dad is someone who wants to catch you before you fall
But instead picks you up, brushes you off, and lets you try again.

A dad is someone who Wants to keep you from making mistakes
But instead lets you find your own way
Even though his heart breaks in silence,
When you get hurt.

A dad is someone who
Holds you when you cry,
Scolds you when you break the rules,
Shines with pride when you succeed,
And has faith in you even when you fail
